FAMILY HISTORY:

David's mother was a clairvoyant card and teacup reader. She came to Canada in 1907 from Europe. David's ancestry has been traced back to 9th century France to Marie de Saint-Clair ancestor of Henry de Saint-Clair, Baron of Rosslyn in Scotland, and the Earl of Caithness, Lord James Sinclair (English for Saint-Clair). The Sinclairs are recognized as hereditary Grand Masters of Scottish Masonry ... Conferred on the Sinclairs by James II who ruled between 1437 and 1460. David's grandmother was a Newman, a family with a history of psychics and artists.

PERSONAL HISTORY:

David was born on the prairies in 1943. From the age of 5 David knew he was clairvoyant. At the age of 7 David met a palmist named Anne Shaddilac who helped him realize that he had a talent for telling people their past and forecasting the future from their hands. At the age of 16 in 1959, David tried to prevent his father's death. His father, a very stern man, told him not to "talk like that" and ignored his warnings. David's father drowned that night although he was a strong swimmer and excellent boatman. At the age of 21, a doctor was called to see David at his home. The doctor examined David and told him to rest at home and that he would be okay. The diagnosis was a stomach flu. David knew that there was a more serious problem and David's mother and a friend took him to the hospital. There it was discovered that David had a tissue blockage, he was operated on and informed by the hospital that had he stayed home 1/2 hr. longer, he would have died. David is noted for being the first person to create real employment for people living in mental homes. He has also established himself as a successful business man through owning and operating several businesses.

David has even worked with the RCMP - one case, that was ongoing for 7 years David solved in less than 24 hrs.
