GENERAL RULES at The Mermaid & The Cow Campground

RESPECT

The Mermaid and The Cow Campground welcomes all members of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Two-Spirited, and questioning communities; their families; and queer-positive heterosexual friends. We are committed to maintaining a space where you can enjoy holiday time in a beautiful atmosphere where you are valued and respected.

NOISE

Please enjoy yourselves, but also respect your neighbors - including your hosts. Unless indicated otherwise, Quiet Time is in effect from 11 p.m. until sunrise Sunday - Thursday and midnight until sunrise during weekends.

FIRES/SMOKING

Campfires are permitted in on-site fire pits and the community firepit ONLY. Management reserves the right to ban fires at any time, i.e., in the case of dry conditions. Please DO NOT burn garbage or plastics in fire pits, nor deposit cigarette butts or bottle caps in them...they don't burn! Please spread out or douse any unburned logs before retiring for the night. Smokers: please use the sand-filled cans to douse your cigarettes.

GARBAGE/SITES

Please keep your site tidy during your stay, and dispose of all waste in the appropriate bins located next to the shower house.

DAY GUESTS

There is a $6/person charge for folks visiting the campground for the day. Day guest parking is located across from the red kiosk. All day guests MUST leave the grounds by 8 p.m.

ANIMALS

Yours:

All dogs MUST BE kept ON LEASH while on the grounds. Owners are responsible for cleaning up after their dogs. Waste matter must be placed in the garbage bins.

However, for your own safety and the safety of our animals, please DO NOT ENTER the barn, and DO NOT CLIMB over or under wooden or electric fences on the property.

GAYZEBO

The Gayzebo is open daily from sunrise until 10 p.m., or until midnight on rainy weekends, and campers are welcome to use the BBQ there.
